He Had Played Checkers.

Friday night, last, a stranger struck town. Wanted in a game of checkers. Said he'd played some. Boys up street afraid to tackle him. Bright idea struck the boys. Get Mr. Nathan Wimer, Monterey's champion after him. "Say, stranger, we have a man down street who'll play you in the morning. He's a little shy about playing with strangers, but we'll introduce you as Mr. Nelson, of North Fork, Pendleton county, W. Va." "Very well."

Saturday morning. Seats at a premium in the grand stand. Track in good condition. "Mr. Nelson, of North Fork, Mr. Wimer." "Yes sir—known them folks—raised beside 'em" (side—"He's my meat.") "Play first talk later." At it they went. Monterey in good form. Even betting. Good, even start.

First quarter, neck and neck, and Old Monterey's colors flying. Second quarter, even pullin'. Home stretch, stranger ahead, and at the finish Monterey just in sight without a king.

"Monterey's onto his moves now," the boys said. At it again. Second race to a finish and Monterey's champion only second best, and again without a king. Monterey lags. Signs of coming out of the race. Stranger called to one side, by the boys. "Give him this game to keep up his spirits." Game number 3, Monterey easy winner and betting more lively. But after that Mr. Nelson made it entirely too warm for our champion. He beat him this way and that way, give away and keeps, and when he won a game blindfolded, Nathan "lowed he'd played on Sunday." "Yes, that's when I learned."

Something said then about ground hog day and the moon not bein' right for checkers, and the boys "lowed" "maybe they's something in that."

"I didn't know of any over-ordinary players in Pendleton." "Say, Mr. Nelson, how's your uncle Bill gettin' along these days?" As Mr. Nelson didn't have the points about Uncle Bill, he gave the joke away.

He—the stranger, who was, by the way, Mr. Wm. Sheldon, a traveling man of Unadilla, N. Y., remarked, incidentally, that he had been in some big checker games, and four years ago was the champion of New York state. The boys said "No wonder," and Nathan said he expected his dinner was ready.

Married.

On Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, the ceremony which made Mr. David H. Peterson of McDowell, and Miss Pattie R. Slaven, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Slaven of this place, man and wife, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, by Rev. S. A. Parker of McDowell. The wedding was a very quiet one, only a few of the immediate friends of the contracting parties being present.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Peterson left for the groom's home in McDowell.

Quarantine Notice.

At a called meeting of the Town Council of Monterey, Va., held on Wednesday evening, Feb. 21st, 1900, the following order was made:

On motion, the town of Monterey, Va., is declared quarantined against all people from Pocahontas county, W. Va., and the town Serger is hereby authorized to carry into effect such measures as he may deem expedient to make the quarantine effective. Anyone from the infected district is forbidden entrance to the town, under penalty of arrest, fine and imprisonment, the fine to be not less than $25 or more than $100. By order of the Council. O. Wilson, Chairman Protem.

A Sad Death.

One day last week when Fannie, 5 year old daughter of Ephraim Vandevender, of North Fork, Pendleton county was, with other children, returning home from school near Mr. Leonard Hammer's, she fell from a foot log, a distance of 10 or 12 feet, into the stream below, and before assistance could reach the place, the other children being too small to go in the stream, she drowned. Her uncle was the first one to arrive and found the body several yards down the stream, partly under the ice. Rev. Josiah Beverage officiated at the burial.

Indicted For Burning Mill.

At the Bath county court last week Delta Michael and S. M. Niel were indicted on the charge of burning the Williamsville Roller Mill, an account of which appeared in this paper two weeks ago.

Under a warrant the parties were arrested, at their home in this county, by J. Ed. Arbogast, Sheriff, and special deputy, Wm. Jordan, and were brought to Monterey where they were guarded at Hotel Star Friday night, and on Saturday were taken to the Bath county seat, where they were turned over to Sheriff John E. Gunn. Bail, it is thought, will be granted the prisoners by the Judge in vacation. They have secured as their attorneys Messrs Stephenson and Jones.

"I had dyspepsia for years. No medicine was so effective as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gave immediate relief. Two bottles produced marvelous results," writes L. H. Warren, Albany, Wis. It digests what you eat and cannot fail to cure. Trimble and Lunsford.

A bill passed by both houses and signed by the Governor requires all persons offering real estate deeds for recordation to pay at the time in addition to the recordation fees the sum of $1.00 for the fee to the commissioner of the revenue for transferring the land from one to another. Heretofore the commissioner collected this fee himself. County clerks receive from 10 to 25 per cent of this fee for collection.

Stories of the War.

Some very interesting stories of the South African war came out in a recent issue of the Baltimore Sun. An account of life in Ladysmith is given by a Daily Mail correspondent. In part it is as follows:

"Good morning," bawled four-point-seven, "have you used Long Tom?"

"Crack-k-whizz," came the receiving answer, "we have."

"Which-patter, patter," chimed in a cloud-high burst of shrapnel from Bulwar.

"It was half-past 7 in the morning of November 7; the real bombardment, the terrific symphony, had begun."

"During the first movement the leading performer was 'Long Tom.' He is a friendly old gun, and for my part I have none but the kindest feelings toward him. It was his duty to shell us, and he did, but he hid it in an open manly way."

"Behind the half-country of light red soil they had piled up around him you could see his ugly phiz thrust up and look hungrily about him. A jet of flame and a spreading cloud of thick white smoke told us he had fired. On the flash four-point-seven bawled his peculiar reply."

"You waited until you saw the black smoke jumped behind the red mound and then 'Tom' was due in a second or two."

"On this same 7th a brother of 'Long Tom,' by the name of 'Fiddling Jimmy,' opened on the Manchester and Caesar's Camp from a dais-topped kopje, three or four miles south of them. This gun had been there certainly since November 3, when it shelled our retreating reconnaissance; but he, too, was a gentle creature and did little harm to anybody."

"Next day a third brother, 'Puffing Billy,' made a somewhat bashful first appearance on Bulwar. Four rounds from the four-p int-seven silenced him for the day. Later came other brothers, of whom you will hear in due course."

A striking incident is comprised in the following account of the Coleridge disaster furnished by the Daily Telegraph's special correspondent with general French Column:

"Our burring party sent out to receive by the Boers sympathetically. They rendered assistance also to our men. Over the grave they sang hymns and some of the leaders made impressive speeches, expressing abhorrence of the war, regretting the heavy losses on both sides, and declaring the hope that the war would soon be ended."

"One wonders if ever before in the history of war the victors in such an engagement stood around the graves of the men they had just shot, sang a hymn and, amid these solemn surroundings, impressively bewailed the strife of blood, which they fervently hoped would soon be ended. Mystery of earthly affairs, that we must shoot such men! Alas, for human wisdom!"

Waycross Items.

Feb. 15, 1900.

As we like the rest of world (except England) have a few spare moments, we will give you a few jottings from our ever quiet community.

Mr. C. L. Davis who has been a resident of our place for several years past has gone to Sangersville to live. He and his wife will be greatly missed. Our best wishes go with them.

Our enterprising merchant S. J. Cline accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Davis to Sangersville, and from there he expects to visit the northern cities to purchase his spring stock.

Mr. W. B. Stuart and wife have been visiting her father Mr. Allen Armstrong on upper Bullpasture. Miss Eddie Hupman who has been living in Staunton for several years is home on a visit.

Mr. W. H. Splawn of Moscow was in our midst last week visiting his mother and brother J. E. Splawn of Waycross mill.

Our weather prophet and cotemporary with the ground hog Mr. Samuel Wilson was up to see us not long since and says our winter is just beginning. We hope Sammy is mistaken.

Mrs. S. J. Stuart has taken charge of her farm lately vacated by C. L. Davis.

Our friend J. Addison Bodkin who has been suffering with a very severe attack of indigestion has been greatly missed for the past week by his many friends.

Miss Lizzie Devericks expects to begin school at Liberty school house in the near future.

ADDITIONAL NEWS.

Feb. 20, 1900.

We are now wrapped up in chilling snow with the mercury hovering about zero.

The topic of the day is the burning of the Williamsville Roller Mill. The desire of the public is to let justice overtake the guilty person or persons. It is greatly to be deplored that we have such malicious people in our country. Stock of all kinds are wintering well, feed is scarce.

There is talk of a broom factory to be located near here.

Mrs. J. M. Armstrong visited Mrs. Lenora Gwin who has been ill for sometime.

J. C. Simmons the hustling farmer of this vicinity is greatly improving the looks of his farm. The dusty miller at Waycross mills is off on a vacation for a few days.

Wonder what has become of Oxalis, has he faded away like early flowers or gone South for his health. Dick.

PLEASE SETTLE.—All parties indebted to me are requested to please make settlement at once. My books are ready. Paul Brown.

An Editor's Life Saved by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

During the early part of October, 1896, I contracted a bad cold which settled on my lungs and was neglected until I feared that consumption had appeared in an incipient state. I was constantly coughing and trying to expel something which I could not, I became alarmed and after giving the local doctor a trial bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the result was immediate improvement, and after I had used three bottles my lungs were restored to their healthy state.—B. S. Edwards, Publisher of The Review, Wyant, Ill. For sale by John A. White-law, Monterey, H. E. Colaw, Crabbottom; J. M. Jones, Doe Hill; S. C. Slaven, Meadow Dale.

John Durr, Poseyville, Ind., says, "I never used anything as good as One Minute Cough Cure. We are never without it." Quickly breaks up coughs and colds, cures all throat and lung troubles. Its use will prevent consumption. Pleasant to take. Trimble and Lunsford.

A Woman Only Knows

what suffering from falling of the womb, white, painful or irregular menses, or any disease of the distinctly feminine organs. A man may sympathize or pity but he cannot know the agonies she goes through—the terrible suffering, so patiently borne, which robs her of beauty, hope and happiness. Yet this suffering really is needless.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

will banish it. This medicine cures all "female diseases" quickly and permanently. It does away with humiliating physical examinations. The treatment may be taken at home. There is not continual expense and trouble. The sufferer is cured and stays cured. Wine of Cardui is becoming the leading remedy for all troubles of this class. It costs but $2 from any druggist.

The Eminent Kidney and Bladder Specialist.

The Discoverer of Swamp-Root at Work in his Laboratory.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Then the richness of the blood—the albumen—leaks out and the sufferer has Bright's Disease, the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the new discovery is the true specific for kidney, bladder and urinary troubles. It has cured thousands of apparently hopeless cases, after all other efforts have failed. At druggists in fifty-cent and dollar sizes. A sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling about Swamp-Root and its wonderful cures. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and mention this paper.
